European Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

In the run up to putting a tour on sale we get asked lots of questions relating to the shows and ticket sales. We've put together this handy guide to help you navigate your way through the process. We are working hard to do everything we can to make sure that tickets only end up in the hands of genuine fans.

The Promoters of Ed Sheeran are committed to combating unethical secondary ticketing and resale.

For the 2024 tour we will be operating a names on tickets policy on tickets sold ONLY via Platinumlist.

You will receive instructions on how to access your ticket(s) much nearer to the shows.

Upon arrival at the show, you will then be required to arrive as a group and present your ticket(s) with the Lead Purchaser present. The Lead Purchaser will be required to have a photo ID that matches the name on the tickets.

www.edsheerandxb.com and platinumlist.net

When will tickets go on sale?

How do I arrange to buy tickets for someone requiring disabled access?

What is unethical secondary ticketing and ticket resale?

Unethical secondary ticketing is when people buy tickets at face value and then re-sell them at inflated prices via non-artist approved methods and websites, thus denying real fans the chance to buy at face value.

Ticket touts and unauthorised resellers use multiple payment cards, false identities and sophisticated computer programmes ('bots') to buy up large amounts of tickets which they then offer for resale at highly inflated prices.

How many tickets can I buy?

There will be a strict limit of 8 tickets per show date per person. This restriction is in place in order to give as many people as possible a fair chance to buy tickets. The whole party must arrive at the same time as the Lead Purchaser holding the tickets matching their valid photo ID.

PLEASE NOTE that any and all transactions that are detected as bot purchases, patrons creating duplicate accounts in order to purchase more than the ticket limit or any action that indicates a suspicious purchase in excess of the ticket limit will be cancelled.

What is a Lead Purchaser?

A Lead Purchaser is the name of the cardholder or the name input during the booking process. You can find the name of the Lead Purchaser in the confirmation email and on your ticket.

It is important that the Lead Purchaser arrives with their group and their matching, valid photo ID to enter the event.

But we want to go as a bigger group/family?

You will have to try to complete another order with another Lead Purchaser name and card as each person is allowed a max of 8 tickets.

Can I buy tickets as a gift?

The matching photo ID with the surname of the Lead Purchaser will be an entry requirement, the other tickets bought by that person can be used for other people as long as they ALL arrive with the Lead Purchaser. If you want to buy as gifts then you'll also have to attend to get your recipients into the show.

What are the entry requirements?

To gain access to the concert you are required to bring your ticket with a clear and undamaged barcode visible. You may be required to produce your email booking confirmation and a valid form of photo ID that matches the name on the confirmation. Accepted forms of photo ID are – A current original driver's licence (including provisional licence), a current or recently expired original passport (provided the picture is a good resemblance of the holder) or the original Emirates ID

I can't get in with my tickets, it failed to scan and I've been turned away at the gates?

Don't worry, we can try and help you. In the first instance head to the box office where someone will be able to help you work out what's gone wrong. Remember DO NOT buy a ticket from someone you don't know either in person on the street OR from an unauthorised secondary ticket website. Remember these are likely to be fake and will not gain you entry to the show.

What else are you doing to combat the secondary market?

Your ticket(s) are linked to your account with Platinumlist. This means your ticket and the individual information you gave when you purchased are linked. If a ticket is resold in any method other than via official face-value ticket resale, you will be refused entry to the venue.
